“SERVICE ABOVE SELF”

From Legacy to Lasting Impact: 22 Years of Service Above Self

July 21 | The Rotary Club of Central Cabadbaran proudly celebrated its 22nd Charter Day on July 21, 2026, marking more than two decades of service, fellowship, and meaningful impact since its chartering on July 21, 2004, under Charter President Dr. Harris Glenn O. Puyot. The celebration honored the club's rich history and the Rotarians whose dedication has sustained its mission through the years. Guided by the spirit of "Honoring Our Past. Celebrating Our Present. Inspiring Our Future," the occasion served not only as a celebration of milestones but also as a reminder that the true legacy of Rotary is measured by the lives touched and communities strengthened through service.

Under the leadership of Impact Building President Kisha A. Castrodos, the club embraces the call to Create Lasting Impact by bringing members together and ensuring that every activity and project carries purpose and value.

Moving forward, RCCC remains committed to strengthening fellowship, building partnerships, and turning collective efforts into meaningful service that leaves a lasting difference in the community.
