Vice-President • Editor-in-Chief

October reminds us that meaningful change begins with care and a commitment to serve. As Rotary highlights Community and Economic Development, Breast Cancer Awareness, and the End Polio Now campaign, we are called to empower communities, promote early detection, and protect children from a preventable disease.

Though these causes differ, they share one purpose: building a healthier, stronger, and more hopeful world.

Let's continue to turn compassion into action, knowing that every effort, no matter how small, can make a lasting difference; create stronger communities, healthier lives, and a future free from polio.

Happy Reading!

President's Cornerstone

Niptalez Avena

President

To my Dear Blooming Ladies in Red,

This October, we are reminded of one of Rotary's most important global commitments: the fight to end polio.

For decades, Rotary has stood at the forefront of the worldwide effort to eradicate polio. Through advocacy, fundraising, vaccination campaigns, and partnerships with governments and health organizations, Rotary has helped protect millions of children. We have made remarkable progress, but our mission is not yet finished. As long as polio exists, children remain at risk. This is why our commitment must remain strong, and why every effort, every partnership, and every act of awareness continues to matter.

In line with this commitment, I warmly encourage all our club members to participate in the polio vaccination activity on Wednesday, October 21, in Barangay Maa. Your presence and support will help strengthen this important community health initiative.

Three days later, on October 24, we will observe World Polio Day, a day that reminds us of the importance of vaccination.

My dear ladies, ending polio is more than a global health goal. It is a promise to every child: the promise of a healthier future, the freedom to grow, learn, and play, and the opportunity to live without the fear of a preventable disease.

May we continue to Create Lasting Impact through our service and remain united in our mission until the world is free from polio!

The Rotary Foundation

Rotary

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY, AND DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise, and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST, the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND, high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD, the application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal and community life;

FOURTH, the advancement of international understanding, good will, and peach through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP • DIVERSITY • INTEGRITY • LEADERSHIP

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life;
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect;
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world;
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

ROTARY'S SEVEN AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures, and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most importantly, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in seven areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

1. Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
2. Disease prevention and treatment
3. Water and sanitation
4. Maternal and child health
5. Basic education and literacy
6. Economic and community development
7. Supporting the environment
